

GEE! WEREN'T YOU GLAD WHEN

EGGS AND POTATOES GOING UP HIGHER

Chicago within the next few days may establish a record for high price in eggs that has a good chance to stand for all time. Chicago food hogs admitted yesterday that ten carloads of eggs have been shipped east and that the supply of eggs here was about depleted. Potatoes are expected to go to $3.50 a bushel within a week.

TWO GIRLS DIE FROM GAS

Victoria Berna and Sophie Drawka, each 21, were found dead today from gas in bed in their room at 1114 N. Lincoln st. One gas jet was open. The police are investigating, but believe the deaths accidental.